The incredible KLEZMER KLUB is back! We’ll be ending this year’s Streatham Festival in style with great music from the band on Sunday 13 July. Get ready for plenty of traditional Klezmer freylekhs, bulgars and horas – with a modern day London multicultural twist. And this is your chance to catch some rarely-heard songs in Yiddish from Jewish London at the end of the 19th century which have been collected by vocalist Vivi Lachs.

Put the date in your calendar now and tell your friends.

Refreshments available during the interval.

Tickets £10 Email office@southlondon.org to reserve tickets.

Also available on the door.
